Nourouk, May 20.—Decoration was observed here to day by the usual solemnities at the Naval-Hespital cemetery in Portsmouth by the Grand Army posts of the two cities. There was first a parade from the headquarters of Farragut Post in Portsmouth, in which all the United States marines of the navy-yard barracks and war-ships and a battalion of sailors joined with the posts and the detachments of Confederate veterans from Stonewall and Pickett-Buchanan camps. The Naval Post Band headed the column and the demonstration was quite imposing. The oration was delivered by Mr. Charles Hauback, of Illinois. A large number of people were on the grounds.

The navy-yard, custom-house, post-office, Cotion Exchange, and Chamber of Commerce are closed to-day in respect for the day.

Early yesterday morning about twentyfive members of Phil. Kearney Post. Grand Army of the Republic, accompanied by about as many ladies, and several visiting comrades from Washington and other northern points, assembled infront of their half and started by private conveyances for Cold Harbor.

Upon arriving there they found that the large mound surrounding the flag-pole had been covered by floral gifts and designs by the ladies and children of the neighborhood who had preceded them to the grounds. The exercises were perhaps the most interesting ever held under the auspices of Phil. Kearney Post.
General Allan, who was master of cermonies, made a happy and touching reference to the manifestations of sympathy and at the close of the exercises, on motion of Comrade Wolcott, seconded by Colonel Odell, of Washington, a hearty and unanimous vote of thanks was tendered them, and also the choir of Indies

EXERCISES AT COLD HARBOR.

The exercises at Cold Harbor consisted of the regular ritual of union day by Commander Keenan: the introductory address by Comrade Edgar Allan; the oration by Colonel William Shildes Odell, of Washington: recitation by Miss Mamie Leahy, of this city; a short address by Post-Commander Burke, and the exercises of the chaplain by Comrade William A. Parsons, of Gocchland county.

The address of Colonel Odell was pronounced an oratorical gem, not a word being uttered to grate upon the ears of southern citizens, many of whom thanked him for his words of praise to the American soldiery of both armies.

At the close of the exercises a delightful lunch was served by Comrade Savage, superintent of the cemetery, after which flags were planted on every grave, and in the trench which contains the unknown dead a profusion of flowers were strewn.

At this place similar services to those at Cold Harbor were held. The Rev. C. H. Corey officiated as chaplain, assisted by Professor Tefft, of Hartshorn Institute.

The address here was delivered by ex-State-Senator James J. McDonald, who succeeded Major A. J. Terry, of Charlotte county, as custodian of the interior at Washington. The address gave great satisfaction. Referring to the speech of Captain John S. Wise at the tomb of Grant the speaker said:

isfaction. Referring to the tomb of Grant tain John S. Wise at the tomb of Grant the speaker said:

"The wearer of the gray will to-day vie with the wearer of the blue in paying homage to the immortal leader. Grant. Such evidences of friendship are proof that your victories were not in vain. A united nation knowing no North, no South, no East, no West, is the inheritance we leave for those who follow us."

The recitations of Comrade Wilson and Miss Mamie Leaby were especially commendable features.

Many ladies and gentlemen from Richmond, including the visiting German elergymen, attended the services at Seven Pines.

The Palaski Convention.

[Pulaski News.]

The World's Columbian Fair Convention to be held at Pulaski July 15th has secured the lowest railroad fares ever granted to a Virginia convention by fortuitous circumstances and the courtesy of the Norfolk and Western railroad, aggregating a reduction from the present excursion rates of $4 per cent. A table of rates will be issued shortly. shortly.

The Pulaski Convention is beginning to receive the attention its importance demands and the representation should be up to the full limit. While it was necessary to put what may be thought a low limit to the basis of representation in order to bring the number of delegates somewhere within the bounds of accommodation for the meeting proper there is no limit to the invitation to the people of the State to be present on the occasion and lend the encouragement of their presence to a movement of wonderful moment to Virginia.

The World's Fair can get along without Virginia, but Virginia cannot afford to miss the Fair. In saying that the Fair can afford to ignore us we are far from inferring that its management has other than the most hearty desire for Virginia's cooperation. Illinois is a slice of Old Virginia, and she has no thought of ignoring the Old Commonwealth from whose amplitude she was formed.

A SALE OF ALBEMARLE COLTS.

Woollen-Mills Shut Down. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
CHARLOTIESVILLE, VA., May 30.—Captain
R. J. Hancock has returned from New York city, where he went this week to dispose of fifteen thoroughbred yearling colts, the product of the noted "Ellerslie" studfarm, in this county, of which Captain Hancock is owner. Ready purchasers were found for all the colts at very satisfactory prices, averaging $73880 apiece.
Captain Hancock has bred some of the finest race-horses now on the turf, Eole, Diablo, Eon, Russell, etc., being among the number. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Albemarle county is coming to the front in the matter of truck farming. Well-matured cabbage, grown near this city, have been on the market all this week, much sooner than ever known before. They were grown on the "Edgehill" farm. Our market is now well supplied with nearly all kinds of vegetables, all of which bring good prices. Potatoes are still very high. The young people of the Baptist church will undertake a regular mission work in the county and city juil in this city.

GERMAN TARIFFTALK

THE QUESTION OF REDUCTION OR SUSPENSION OF GRAIN DUTIES.

dignation Against Russia-The Case of the Hebrews Ropeless-Europe's Great Conflict to Come in '93.

[Copyrighted 1891 by the New York Associated Press, ]

Bealin, Gra., May 30.—The Emperor William, before deciding on a reduction or a temporary euspension of the duties on grain, asked Dr. Von Beetticher, Secretary of the Imperial Home Office, to submit to him a report upon the crop prospects and ipon the general economic position bearing upon the question. The Ministerial Council will meet to-morrow to take definite action touching the matter. The Ministers maintain the utmost reserve, but ministers maintain the utmost reserve, but it is the official conviction to-night that there will be neither a reduction nor a suspension of the duties before the commercial treaty between Germany and Austria Hungary comes into force. The Cologne Gazetle states that the Government will declare its decision on Monday. Lobby gossip has it that the Landtag will fix the opening of the special session of the Reichstag for June lith, but this report is in direct variance with the belief in ministerial circles.

The matter of grain supplies.

The commission appointed by the Government to consider the matter of grain supplies has not yet completed its inquiry, though a preliminary report has been supplied by it to the Ministers in order to assist them in their deliberations. Only the most urgent necessity will cause the convening of the Reichstag. A discussion of the grain tariff question would open the whole question, pending the negotiations for a treaty of commerce with Austria and would force the Government to awkward disclosures, which might assist Prince Bismarck in forming the opposition coalition which he is now actively at work THE MATTER OF GRAIN SUPPLIES. calition which he is now actively at work BISMARCE'S POSITION. Herr Bleichroder, the well-known banker, visited Friedricheruhe on Thursday to con-sult with Prince Bismarck regarding the expected action of the Government. The expected action of the Government. The Progressist press announces that Prince Bismarck will appear in the Reichstag and oppose a reduction of the grain tariffs, and predict that the Prince will certainly meet with a humliating defeat, as hardly a score of the members will support him. In the absence of accurate information as to how the Prince would deal with the possible grain famine, the prediction is futtle. The Conservatives admit that a temporary reduction of the tariffs may be advisable.

THE TRODABLE STUATHON.

The Germania (Centrist organ) concludes

THE PROBABLE SITUATION.

The Germania (Centrist organ) concludes an energetic protest against a permanent diminution of the duties by a similar admission. The organs of the agrarian party generally deny that there is any present necessity for dealing with the tarif, but admit reductantly that there is a possibility that the Government will be compelled to intervene. The position may be summed up as follows: It the Ministers declare that a semi-famine is impending no party will dare to oppose measures of relief.

ITALY TO ADHERE TO THE DREIBUND. The Post semi-officially announces that he Marquis di Rudini, the Italian Pre-nier, has formally communicated to the ferman and Austrian Governments the letermination of Italy to achieve to the Dreibund Public indignation against Russia because of that Government's treatment of the Jews is becoming infire intense. The residents of this city have ceular evidence of the condition of the Rebrews who are being driven from Russia in the hundred or more of the exiled who arrive daily at the Charlottenburg station in absolute destitution. These exiles are met at the station by co-raigionists, who supply them with food and clothing and a little money, and procure for them passage to London or New York.

MB. GLADSTONE MUSTAKEN. INDIGNATION AGAINST BUSSIA.

MB. GLADSTONE MISTAKEN.
The letter from Mr. Gladstone, reprinted affirming that the Czar does not of the horrors inflicted upon his a subjects differs utterly from the lewish subjects differs utterly from the sacts. It ought to be universally known that the representations of the Mendelstohns, Bleichroders, and Frankfort Rothichidas were sent through a sure channel and were placed in the hands of the Czar and obtained a reading a month ago. THE CZAR THE CHIEF INSTIGATOR OF SEVERI-TIES.

A statement was presented to M. de Pobcedonostzeff, Chief of the Holy Synod of Russia, simply asking that measures be adopted for the mitigation of the lot of the expelled Hebrews, and a similar memorial the system of the Holy Synonym of the lot of the expelled Hebrews, and a similar memorial to M. de Giers, the Russian was presented to M, de Giers, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, but all were unavailing. The truth is that the Czar himself is the chief instigator of the increased severities practiced upon the Jews. His Majesty's brother, the Grand Duke Sergius, who is now Governor of Moscow, is a willing instrument for the carrying out of the brutal treatment of the Jews.

THE CONDITION OF THE JEWS HOPELESS. Jewish advices from St. Petersburg and Moscow concur in the statement that the most powerful influences have been brought to bear upon the Czar, but that the condition of the Jews is hopeless. A NEW LIBERAL PROGRAMME.

The meeting of the National Liberals to be held to-morrow for the purpose of attempting to prepare a new programme threatens to result in a split. The party organs in discussing the political situation differ widely as to the platform to be adopted. The National Zeitung declares that the party cannot follow Prince Bismarck unless he renounces his opposition to the Government. medes.

to the Government. NO COMMON PLATFORM POSSIBLE. The Liberal Correspondent, the mouth-piece of the leading members of the party, admits that the meeting to-morrow will probably not result in anything beyond an exchange of ideas and that no common platform is mean time possible. EUROPEAN CONFLICT IN 1892. The Saale Zeitung states that Count von Moltke just prior to his death concluded an exhaustive study of European armaments, ending with the assertion that France was ready for war and Russia nearly so, and that a great conflict could not be delayed beyond 1822. Count von Moltke submitted his views to the Emperor during his last visit to Lubeck.

BRITAIN'S BERING-SEA BILL.

nce of the Measure Introduced in (By Anglo-American cable to the Dispatch.)
LONDON, ENO., May 30.—The text of the Bering-Sea bill introduced in the House of Commons yesterday by Mr. William Henry Smith, the First Lord of the Treasury, is in substance as follows: Her Majesty, the Queen, may by an order in Councel prohibit the catching of seals by British ships during a period to be limited by the order in Councel under this act is in force no person belonging to a British ship shall kill, take, or hunt, or attempt to kill, take, or hunt, any seal withing the Bering Sea during the period stated in the order in Council. No British ship or any equipment or crew thereof shall be employed in such killing, taking, or hunting, or attempt at killing, taking, or hunting. the House of Commons.

THE CRIME AND ITS FENALTY.

If there be any contravention of this set, any person committing, procuring, siding, or abetting such contravention shall be guilty of a misdemeanor within the meaning of the merchant shipping act, and the ship or equipment and everything on board shall be forfeited to her Majesty, as if the offence had been committed under section 103 of said act, and sections 103 and 104 shall apply as if they were herein re-enacted and in terms applicable to an offence and forfeiture under this act. Any commissioned officer on the naval list shall have power during the period, limited by the order in council, to stop and examine any British ship in the Bering Sea, and to detain her or any portion of her equipment, or any of her crew if in his judgment the ship is being or preparing to be used or employed in contravention of this section. THE CRIME AND ITS PENALTY. Several proprietors of lumber-mills in the State have made large contributions of timber for the erection of appropriate houses on the Exposition-grounds, and work will soon be pushed with energy. The proposition to erect a monument to the memory of Jefferson Davis is meeting with much favor he.e. T. W. If a British ship is found within the Be-ring Sea having on board fishing or shoot-ing implements or sealskins or bodies of seals it shall lie with the owner or master of such ship to prove that the ship was not used or employed in contravention of this act.

This act shall apply to the animal known as the fur-seal and to any marine animal specified in that behalf by the order in council under this act, and the expression "seal" in this act shall be construed accordingly. The expression "Bering Sea" in this act means the seas known as Bering Sea within the limits described in the order in council under this act. The expression "equipment" in this act includes any boat, tackle, fishing, or shooting instruments, or other things belonging to a ship. APPLICATION OF THE ACT.

PROCEDURE IN CASE OF VIOLATION. In order that the above provisions may be carried into effect it shall be lawful for any commissioned officer on full pay in the military or naval service of her Majesty any commissioned officer on full pay in the military or naval service of her Majesty or any British officer to seize and detain any ship which has wholly or as to any share therein become subject to forfeiture as aforesaid and bring her for adjudication before the High Court of Admiralty in England or Iroland or before any court having admiralty jurisdiction within her Majesty's dominions, and such court may thereupon make such order as it may think fit and award the officer bringing in the same for adjudication such portion of the proceeds of the sale of any forfeited ship or share as it may think fit.

NON-RESPONSIBILITY OF OFFICER MAKING SEIZUER.

No such officer is to be responsible, either civilly or criminally, to any person whomseever, respecting the seizure or detention of any ship seized or detained by him in pursuance of the provisions herein contained—despite the fact that such ship is not brought for adjudication, or if brought in is declared not to be liable to forfeiture if it is shown to the satisfaction of the indge or ccurt before whom any trial relating to such ship or seizure or detention is held that there were reasonable grounds for such seizure or detention. But if no such grounds are shown such judge or court may award payment of SEIZUBB. judge or court may award payment of costs or damages to any party aggrieved and may make such other order in the premises as the judge or court may think fit.
